Emmanuel Gyamfi

Kasoa

+233 5467 65140

emmanuelgyamfi6765@gmail.com

Objective

I am a passionate and creative intermediate frontend designer, database manager, and UI/UX designer with a strong professional background in data management and IT support. I thrive in collaborative environments, bringing a strong team player attitude and a keen eye for detail to every project. My goal is to leverage my skills to create intuitive, visually appealing, and highly functional web experiences.

Experience

National Service Personnel

Ga South Municipal Assembly | Accra, Ghana

September 2024 – Present

- Performing roles of system management and IT related work.

MIS Office Intern

Ga South Municipal Assembly | Accra, Ghana

August 2023 – November 2023

- Created and managed user accounts for various internal systems.

- Provided IT technical support, resolving hardware and software issues for staff.

Data Entry Intern

Best Price Ghana Limited | Accra, Ghana

July 2023 – September 2023

- Accurately entered and formatted diverse datasets into company systems.

- Designed and published product data on the company's website using Figma and Shopify.

Education

BSc Computer Science

University of Cape Coast
2021-2024
2nd Class Honours (Upper Division)

Senior High School Certificate

Christian Methodist Secondary School
2017-2020

Skills

Technical Skills: UI/UX Design, Frontend Web Design, Database Management, Computer Literacy, Figma, System Management, IT Support

Soft Skills: Problem-Solving, Strong Communication, Creativity, Teamwork, Adaptability, Attention to Detail

Awards and Recognition

- Certificate as a Frontend Web Developer by partaking in bootcamp organized by Asustem Robotics in collaboration with Lenovo for practical STEM education in Africa.